

287

A Prayer, to be vsed with the other Prayers of the day, so long as His Maiesties Nauie and forces are abroade.

O Most gracious God, and mercifull Father; Thou art the Lord of hosts, all victory ouer our Enemies, all safety against them is from thee: Wee humbly beseech thee to goe on, as thou hast in great mercy begun to go with our Armies, and blesse them: That thy selfe wouldest bee with their winde, and Anchoꝝ at Sea, and with their Sword and Shield at Land: That wisdom may attend all their counsels; and courage and successe all their enterprises: That so thou by them wilt bee pleased to bring safety to this Kingdome; strength and comfort to Religion; victory and reputation to our Countrey: and accomplish and crowne that great ble-sing which thou hast begun to bring vpon vs. Blesse likewise, we beseech thee, the Armies of our Friends and Allies, giue them victory in thy cause, and preserve them from the might and the malice of their and our enemies. And when thou hast blessed both them and vs, and our most gracious King and State by their seruice, grant good Lord, that their Returne may be with safety and honour to heale our many afflictions; and that our thankfulness may then blesse thee, as we blesse thee this day, for shewing mercie to vs thy vnwor-thy, yet penitent and faithfull Seruants.
Grant this for thy deare Sonnes sake Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

By His Maiesties speciall Commandement.

